

Kodak Finishing Done in a Professional Way

VAN GRAVEN STUDIO

Over Brennan's Drug Store

Phone 901

Alliance, Nebr.

Fresh bottled milk in quarts and pints. A. D. Rodgers Grocery. 525-35-21

The city of Alliance is taking the proper steps to get rid of the "bo" element that infest the town by buying the ma ticket to the next town. The plan might help in Bayard. — Bayard Transcript.

Dr. H. P. V. D. Bogue, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Alliance, will preach at the morning service at the Presbyterian church Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

On Wednesday, August 15, Mrs. C. MacCray will entertain the Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church. A fine musical program will be rendered. A large attendance is desired.

Geo. A. Mollring left Tuesday night for Hot Springs, where his horses are entered for races Friday and Saturday of this week.

Glen Wilt resigned his position in the division superintendent's office and left Sunday night for his home at Thompson, Ill.

Miss Glenn Mounts entertained at 6 o'clock dinner last Friday evening, the following guests being present: Misses Edna Benedict, Lura Hawkins and Laura Mounts, and Messrs. Rex Truman, Frank Smith and Glen Wilt.

Jay Vance visited with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hamilton at Sterling from Saturday till Wednesday, returning to Alliance yesterday.

Harold Weidenhamer returned from Chicago Tuesday following a two weeks' visit at that place.

Miss Laura Wadum left Sunday to be gone two weeks visiting in Omaha and Chicago.

Miss Della King left Friday for Deadwood, expecting to be there some time.

Mrs. Dr. Jeffrey returned to Alliance this week following a visit with friends and relatives in the Big Horn Basin and at Casper. She reports a delightful trip through the oil fields.

Mrs. J. W. Reed and daughter Miss Ruth Reed and Mrs. F. R. Murdoch left Tuesday night for a visit of several days in Grand Island and Lincoln.

Mrs. Ellis Ray returned to Scottsbluff Wednesday after having visited with relatives and friends in Alliance for several days.

Miss Virginia Warrick returned to her home at Scottsbluff Saturday.

Rev. O. S. Baker of Chadron was in Alliance Friday.

Mrs. C. D. Reed returned Friday from Omaha and Chicago. She visited in Alliance Saturday and Sunday and left Monday for her home at Torrington, Wyo.

W. R. Harper left Saturday for a short business visit in Chicago.

Mrs. Jack Miller returned to Alliance Wednesday from Fort Crook. She has been at that place visiting her husband, Captain "Jack" Miller, of Company G.

Herbert Butler was at Hoffman Sunday.

According to word received by the banks here from the treasury department it will be at least thirty days before the Liberty Bonds will be ready for distribution.

Harvey Koester, living fifteen miles north of Alliance, was in town Monday. He says they had a great rain out his way Saturday and Sunday. The dry ground was all wet up and the corn and potatoes are now coming along in great style.

Lloyd mith has been here from Omaha this week visiting with his parents.

Frank Fair, employed as postman at the postoffice in Alliance, has been engaged by the Lakeside school board as principal of the Lakeside schools at a salary of $100 a month. He has been given a three-year contract. It is said he also plans to conduct a night school for the benefit of those workmen who desire to take advantage of the opportunity afforded them.

Mrs. J. F. Mifka arrived in Alliance Tuesday in company with her father, M. F. Broome. She was accompanied by her small daughter. They have been guests at the W. D. Rumer home. They came to Alliance from Valentine where they spent several weeks with Mrs. Mifka's parents. From here they will return to Valentine for a brief stay after which they will return to their home in San Francisco.

Jerry Butler of Hemingford was brought to St. Joseph's hospital early in the week.

A. G. Isaacson, proprietor of The Fashion Shop, returned Tuesday from a buying trip of several weeks in the East, visiting Omaha, Des Moines, Chicago, New York City and other points. He reports the purchase of an immense line of fall goods of the latest styles for the customers of The Fashion Shop.

L. L. Leith, a former employe of The Alliance Herald, now representing the Mutual Film Corporation, with headquarters in Denver, was an Alliance visitor the first of the week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schafer, at 10 o'clock Tuesday evening, an eight and one-half pound baby girl, to be named Mary Maxine.

Herald ads bring results. Try one in the next issue.

W. R. Pate, superintendent of the Alliance city schools, returned to Alliance Saturday from Lincoln where he completed a four years' summer course in the state university and was awarded his degree of B. A. After spending Saturday in Alliance he left for Bayard to join his family on their homestead.

Fresh bottled milk in quarts and pints. A. D. Rodgers Grocery. 525-35-21

Asher McCluer of Bayard is reported to be ill with typhoid fever at the Shawver home, 219 Toluca.

George D. Darling and Ray Frost arrived home Monday from another session with the fish up on Laramie creek. They report a considerable quantity of mud up that way, but the fish they brought home made them forget a little thing like mud.

T. R. Crawford was at Ainsworth on business last week.

Jonas Clark was at Scottsbluff the first of the week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Anjel.

Miss Alice Carlson is home from a week's vacation spent in the Black Hills.

Miss Etta Keane, deputy county clerk, returned home Monday following a two weeks' visit in Lincoln at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. J. Burke. Miss Keane brought her little nephew, George Burke, home with her.

Ed Henry and Joe Blake are enjoying a visit in Idaho. There are friends of theirs who are mean enough to say they expect to visit Rocky Mountain National Park this week while "Eva" is roaming at will there.

T. S. Fielding arrived in Alliance Sunday after a month's trip through the East. He represented the Elks lodge of Alliance at the national convention held in Boston. While in the East he visited a number of the interesting places along the Atlantic seaboard.

Mrs. George Eckhardt, Mrs. R. E. McKenzie and Mrs. J. O. Parsons have been visiting in Denver a part of the past week.

C. E. Rhodes, operator at Ellsworth, and formerly train caller here, has gone to Marshall, Mo., to appear for examination before the exemption board there.

D. E. W. Jones has been given the contract for the construction of the new plant to be built at Antioch by the Alliance Potash Company. The work will start as soon as material enough is on hand to work with. The work will be rushed to a rapid completion.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Wright are home, following a two weeks' trip by auto through Wyoming and Colorado. They were at Cheyenne for the Frontier Days celebration, after which they went to Estes Park, Colorado prings, Denver and Manitau.

Sturgeon Brothers received a car load shipment of Reo automobiles this week.

Mrs. E. C. Drake and daughter are home from a visit at Scottsbluff.

Bertha Mason has resumed her duties as pianist at the Imperial following a two weeks' vacation. Mrs. Wiker supplied for her during her absence.

Miss Elizabeth Flessman left Tuesday for a two weeks' visit at Gardiner, Mont., and a trip through the Glacier National Park.

Dr. and Mrs. Mahaffy went to Torrington, Wyo., Sunday to drive their car back to Alliance. A week ago Dr. Mahaffy abandoned the car after trying to guide the car through the hot sands to the accompaniment of an excessive number of blowouts.

Tuesday morning Mrs. Sterling Menrenhall underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Joseph's hospital. She is recovering as nicely as could be expected.

F. W. Rehder was here from Guernsey Saturday visiting friends and looking after business matters. His two boys accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Newburg left Monday night for a visit with relatives and friends at Julesburg, Colo.

Mayor W. E. Rousey and family are enjoying a two weeks' trip in Harney Canyon in the Black Hills. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Huxhes plan on joining them the last of the week.

Tom King was in from Angora Monday, purchasing supplies for his haying outfit.

Mrs. C. H. Fuller and two children of near Gillette, Wyo., arrived last week for a visit with Alliance friends. They are on a homestead near Gillette.

Frank Rumer is here from Sterling this week visiting his parents.

Frank Ryckman is home from Arizona where he went a couple of weeks ago to accept a position. He was formerly engineer at the city light plant.

Chase Feagins arrived home Sunday from a business trip over the Southwest. He was on a cattle-buying trip and went as far west as Fresno, Calif.

Norman McCorkle is attending the tractor show at Fremont this week. He will visit friends in Lincoln and Omaha before returning to Alliance.

Miss Catherine Cable left Saturday for a visit of a few days at Hot Springs, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wyland of Lakeside are the parents of a baby boy born Saturday.

Mrs. Emery Cornu of Crawford was in Alliance the last of the week.

H. M. Bushnell, Jr., left Monday night for a short visit at Elmore, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edwards were at Fort Crook last week visiting their sons who are members of Company G. They report finding everyone at the post feeling fine. They were entertained at the post.

Mrs. A. T. Crawford was here from Scottsbluff Monday. She met her husband here, Mr. Crawford being on his way home from Custer, S. D.

Adrian Keane was up from Hoffman over the week end.

A. G. Ryan of Scottsbluff was in Alliance Sunday enroute from Missoula and Butte, Mont. He was entertained by Alliance friends while here.

Percy Cogswell and family left the first of the week by automobile for Estes Park and other Colorado points.

Miss Alforetta LaMon was a weekend guest of friends at Scottsbluff.

Miss Virginia Warrick returned to her home at Scottsbluff Saturday following a visit of several days here with friends.

G. W. Lowry, who preached at the Baptist church last Sunday both morning and evening, will again occupy the pulpit next Sunday for both services on the invitation of the men of the congregation, in the absence of Pastor A. A. Layton in Denver.

G. R. Tuttle, president of the Western Type & Machinery Company of Kansas City, was in Alliance on business Friday of last week.

Word comes from Fort Crook that private Johnny Williams, of Company G, is lying awake nights waiting for the return to the fort of Carl Rockey and Ed Reardon, members of the company stationed at Alliance for recruiting, who were instrumental in persuading Johnny to enlist. Johnny is planning all sorts of drills for the two fellow members of the company when they arrive at the fort.

Marius Larsen of Canton was in Alliance Tuesday on business, making the trip down by auto, returning the same evening. He is one of the prosperous farmer-ranchmen of western Box Butte county.

Mrs. L. A. Berry returned Tuesday morning from a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives at Boulder and other Colorado points.

Cecil Koester, husband of a former Alliance girl, Inez Beck, who has been physical director of the Y. M. C. A. at Superior, Wis., has been appointed physical director of the Y. M. C. A. at the United States army cantonment at American Lake, Wash.

Mrs. M. E. Coleman of Casper, who formerly lived at Alliance, is visiting in the city.

Jack True, salesman for the Lexington Six automobile line, returned to Alliance Tuesday night from a trip to eastern Nebraska on business. He left Wednesday for Chadron to deliver a car to a customer there.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Thomas at Gordon, Nebr., Sunday, August 5, a baby girl, to be named Claudia Pearl. Harold Thomas is one of "the Thomas boys". Mrs. Thomas is a former Alliance girl.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

HIGH GRADE second-hand automobile for sale cheap. Nicolai & Son. 37-1f

YOUR CHANCE to get a first-class, high-grade automobile for sale cheap. Used but in excellent condition. Nicolai & Son. 37-1f

FOUND—Rim holder and nut from Stanweld automobile demountable rim. Owner may have same by calling at Herald office and paying for this ad. 37-1f-8503

FOR RENT—Seven-room house at 604 Yellowstone avenue. Will be vacant soon. See Geo. Hills or John Snoddy. Phone 48. 37-1f-8502

George D. Darling on Wednesday delivered a fine Edison Chippendale model talking machine to Alex Muirhead at Hemingford. The Chippendale model is one of the finest models manufactured by the Edison people.

E. C. Haning of Dalton, Nebr., has purchased a quarter section five miles west of Alliance, known as the Reeves place. The Haning family will move here to make their home on the place. The land was sold by the Nebraska Land Company.

L. L. Smith, chief clerk to General Superintendent E. E. Young of the Burlington, Tuesday night left with Mrs. Smith for a visit of ten days with his parents at Rock Falls, Ill. They will also-visit friends in Chicago on the trip.

A. D. RODGERS

Retail Grocer

We want to call your attention to our large stock of everything good to eat

Canned fruits and vegetables

Fresh and dried fruits

Fresh and cured meats

Fresh and salt fish

Fresh and canned milk

Quality Coffee and Tea

We have some exceptionally fine bulk coffee and tea that we are offering at a bargain.

Deliveries at 8:00, 9:00 and 10:30 a. m., and 3:00 and 5:00 p. m.

Get your orders in to insure delivery

A. D. RODGERS, Grocer

SHOES

Go to your Shoe Dealer and have him show you the SEASONS LATEST MODELS

MADE BY HAMILTON, BROWN SHOE CO. ST. LOUIS, U. S. A.

Go to Your Shoe Dealer and Ask for HAMILTON-BROWN SHOES

WE CAN FIT YOU WITH GLASSES FOR EVERY PURPOSE

Drake & Drake

Optometrists

313 1/2 Box Butte Ave Phone 121